JACK THE NIPPER... II IN COCONUT CAPERS

The country has had enough. It can take no more of the devilish pranks and obnoxious behaviour of darling little Jack! Banished to Australia, our favourite little horror jumps plane (well, what do you expect?) to land in deepest darkest Jungleland. What havoc he goes on to create is limited only by your imagination. Maybe there's something there that fancies being mugged... bitten... spat at or pinched. As ever poor mam and dad dutifully follow their nauseating little offspring.
